Cathedral City LGBT Days Mission

Celebrate diversity in the strength, equality and self-determination of the LGBT community locally. Cathedral City LGBT Days was created and established to promote the public education, awareness and diversity of individual rights and civil liberties of the LGBT community. Our intention is to continue to welcome, support, and bridge activities that educate, encourage and celebrate the LGBT community to the businesses and residents of Cathedral City.

Bed for Bed Race:

Your entry of $50 will provide you with a bare-minimum built bed that consists of a “single, double, or queen size” bed frame on wheels, four posts to push, and an air mattress. Your team will have an opportunity one week prior to the race to decorate it as a “float” in any theme that doesn’t violate public decency laws. The judges of the bed race can eliminate an entry based on their collective, subjective opinion of public decency laws.

OR

Your team can build your own bed to enter into the race as long as it is only powered to move by the four people pushing and doesn’t violate public decency laws. The judges of the bed race can eliminate an entry based on their collective, subjective opinion of public decency laws.

Tax Deductible Entry Fees for 2017:

- $50.00 per team, per bed
- Entries must be paid in full by March 16, 2017
- Checks and Credit Cards are accepted and payable to:
